

Where Do I Stand?

Decide whether you agree or disagree with these statements:

	Agree	Disagree
1. I like broccoli.
2. When a boy and a girl go out together, it is up to the girl to make sure that things don't go too far.
3. Girls have more body image concerns than when I was in school.
4. Boys have more body image concerns than when I was in school.
5. I would experience discomfort when seeing a boy and a girl were French kissing in the hallway.
6. I would experience discomfort when seeing two boys French kissing in the hallway.
7. I would feel comfortable with teaching a male student who wears female clothing.
8. Public high schools should make free condoms available to those who want them.
9. Engaging in premarital sex has negative consequences.
10. Sex is a primary topic on adolescent students minds.
11. If we teach students about sex, they will be more likely to have it.
12. It is part of a schools job to teach values.
13. I think that it is important that sexuality related information should be included as a subject in high school.
14. I think that it is important that sexuality related information should be included as a subject in middle school.
15. I think that it is important that sexuality related information should be included as a subject in elementary school.
16. I would feel mostly comfortable answering a student's sexuality related questions.
17. My school takes active steps to create a safe environment for sexual minorities such as LGBTQ students.
18. My school takes active steps to promote gender equality.		